

Clay Workshops with Sam Paechter

Year 1

Clay work has a proven impact on learning across all areas of the curriculum, is accessible to all ages and abilities and children really love it!

Sam Paechter is a potter and qualified teacher and has been working in primary schools for nearly two decades.

Residencies with a whole class or school, making for example, a school sign or a tiled mural showing scenes important to the community of the school.

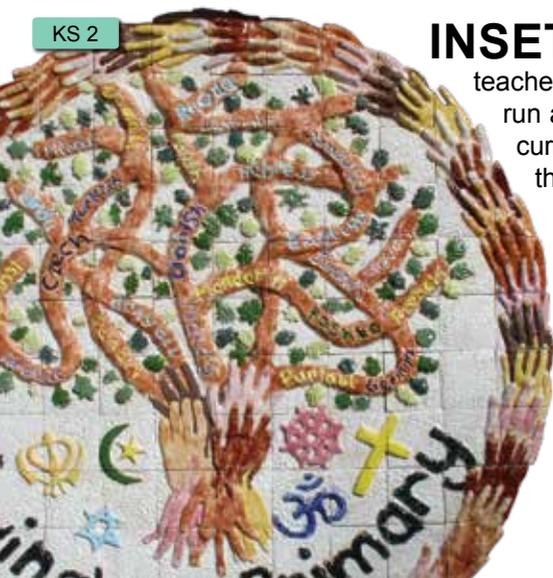

Workshops usually supporting topic work, in which children design and make their own individual pieces; portraits, animals, whistles, minibeasts, buildings, boxes, tiles, Greek pots, Viking longboats, Egyptian mummies...

Year 2

INSET enabling teachers to set up and run a pottery curriculum within their school.

Kiln check getting your school kiln up and running and giving teachers the confidence to use it.

"A particular strength...throughout the school is the exceptionally high quality of pottery...because of the excellent quality of teaching which results in excellent attitudes and the desire to do well."

OFSTED report on Sam's work at Harehills Primary, Leeds

"Thanks Sam for a fabulous day! Our Ancient Greek pottery day was the highlight of our history topic and the quality of the vases the children produced absolutely blew me away."

Jo Turnbull, Y5 teacher
Primrose Lane Primary, Boston Spa

Year 4

F 2

"We were delighted to welcome Sam into school to share with our pupils his exceptional clay making skills. His patience and expertise enthused the pupils (and staff) and resulted in the creation of our wonderful school plaque."

Helen Pratten, Headteacher
St Chad's CE Primary, Leeds

"Sam's clay-working skills coupled with his excellent rapport with the children make him delightful to have in the school."

Tarsem Wyatt, Headteacher
Weetwood Primary, Leeds
